

Date _____

Name _____

Relative clauses

Relative clauses, beginning with who, which, where, when, whose and that.

- (who)
- (which)
- (where)
- (when)
- (whose)
- (that)

Use each of the above words once to insert relative clauses into these sentences. For example: 'The wands, which were kept in a cupboard, flew out of the window and over the forest.'

Zack, _____, was experimenting with ingredients.

A potion bottle, _____, suddenly flew off the shelf and out of the window.

Professor S, _____, saw the bottle flying towards the forest.

The potions lab, _____, is strictly out of bounds to lone students.

The greenhouses, _____, are beside the forest.

Professor S, _____, would be absolutely furious.

Combine the separate clauses below to make sentences containing relative clauses.

The village is next to the school. The village has a magical sweet shop.

---

---

In Year 5, I was picked for the Quidditch team. In Year 5, I helped my house win the cup.

---

---

The spiders at school are carnivorous. The spiders at school have thousands of babies.

---

---

Challenge: Make up some more magic sentences with relative clauses.

Year 5 Answers

In some questions, alternative answers may be acceptable. The likeliest answers are given below. If questions have more than one answer, teachers should use their own judgement when marking.

5d

Sensible sentences using each of the required words, for example:

Zack, who was in the potions lab, was experimenting with ingredients.

A potion bottle, that contained a metallic liquid, suddenly flew off the shelf and out of the window.

Professor S, whose specialism was the Dark Arts, saw the bottle flying towards the forest.

The potions lab, which is on the top floor, is strictly out of bounds to lone students.

The greenhouses, where unusual plants are grown, are beside the forest.

Professor S, when he discovered Zack in the lab, would be absolutely furious.

The village, which is next to the school, has a magical sweet shop.

In year 5, when I was picked for the Quidditch team, I helped my house win the cup.

The spiders, which are carnivorous, have thousands of babies.