Year 3 Half term 5 Suggested challenges for your child to enjoy at home

| Wanted Poster: Choose a book that you have read this half term. Draw and write a 'Wanted Poster' for the main character or the main villain in the story (if it has one). Think about: - The character's appearance - Explain why this character is 'wanted' - Explain where this character could be found. - Explain the impact the character has had on others. Create a flower press design: | Write your own adventure story where you find a hidden room or a hidden garden: Structure your story: Introduce your character. Introduce the setting (strange, old house or big stately home) What are they doing when they discover the secret room / garden? What is in the room or garden? What does the character do in the room / garden? What does the character do at the end of the story? Design / Create your very own eight-point compass: | Draw a map: Draw a map of your local area in your books and use colours if you can. Use different symbols to represent buildings like you would get on an OS map. Create a key to go alongside your map showing what each symbol is. For example: maybe +++++ could represent train tracks or a blue line could be a river. Research King Henry VIII and write a fact file about him. You could include: |

| Using a variety of wild flowers and grass, create a card or poster design. Use a variety of wonderful colours and natural plants to create your image. It does not have to be a flower image, you can use the colours to make a different image, like a park scene with blue skies and yellow sun. Do not pick flowers from people's gardens! | You can either draw one in your book and add extra designs in the centre or around the edges to make yours unique or make your own compass using different materials. | -his family tree -pictures of him -why he was famous (church) -where he lived -what he created while he ruled England |
| A Balanced Diet: Create a table for a weekend or a school week and record what you ate for breakfast, lunch and dinner. Plus, what snacks you ate. Consider what food groups you have eaten and what you could eat the following day to help you achieve a healthy and balanced diet. | Research and create a poster of things to do in one of these countries -Netherlands -France -Germany -Spain | Look at an image or some images of Fountains Abbey and sketch or draw it. Think about: -detail in the bricks and the shades of them -what media to use (pencils, paint, charcoal) |
